2. Role of Compliance Officer

2.1 The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board, on quarterly basis, all the details of trading in securities by the Designated Person(s).

2.2 The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct.

3. Preservation of "Price Sensitive Information"

3.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

- entails an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the sharing of such information being effected in such form as the Board may determine.

However, the Board shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The Board shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks to ensure non-tampering of the database.

3.2 Need to Know:

- (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

3.3 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

4. Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ‘Designated Person(s)’ in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

No insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information provided that the said trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up as under:

4.1 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

4.2 Such trading plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

4.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider and review the aforesaid trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Regulations and shall obtain the approval from the Managing Director/ Chief Executive Officer/ Chairman of the Board for implementation of the plan. However, Compliance Officer shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

4.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

4.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

5. Trading Window and Window Closure

Designated Person(s) and their immediate relatives not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information may execute trades in securities of the Company subject to compliance of following:

5.1

- i. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading Window', is available for trading in the Company's securities.
- ii. The trading window shall remain closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results to the Stock Exchange.

Additionally, the trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a Designated Person(s) or class of Designated Person(s) can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information, for such periods as determined by the Compliance Officer.

- iii. All Designated Person(s) and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above.

5.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Designated Person(s)

6. Pre-clearance of trades

All Designated Person(s) who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) should pre-clear the transaction.

Provided Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

The pre- clearance procedure shall be as under:

- (i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form (attached as Annexure-1) to the Compliance officer.

An undertaking (attached as Annexure-2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person(s).

- (ii) The application must be sent through e-mail followed by hard copies of all the documents. The e-mail for this purpose should be sent to cs@cian.co.
- (iii) The Compliance Officer shall obtain the pre-clearance approval from the Managing Director/ Chief Executive Officer/ Chairman of the Board.
- (iv) The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a 'restricted list' which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for pre-clearance.
- (v) Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price-sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered in accurate.
- (vi) The Compliance Officer shall communicate the approval (attached as Annexure-3) preferably on the same working day but not later than the next working day unless he is of the opinion that grant of such an approval would result in a breach of the provisions of this Code, or the SEBI Regulations. Such approval/ rejection would be conveyed through e-mail.
- (vii) All Designated Person(s) and their relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. The Designated Person(s) shall file within two days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not executed, a report to that effect shall be filed. (Attached as Annexure-4).
- (viii) If the order is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the Designated Person(s) must pre-clear the transaction again.
- (ix) All Designated Person(s) who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months ('holding period') following the prior transaction. All Designated Person(s) shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

The Compliance Officer may, after obtaining the approval from the Managing Director/ Chief Executive Officer/ Chairman of the Board, waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency and shall record the reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

- (x) In the absence of the Compliance Officer due to leave etc., the Officer designated by him/ her, shall discharge the aforesaid functions.

7. Other Restrictions

7.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

7.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

7.3 The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a period of five years.

7.4 Designated persons shall disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- Immediate relatives
- Persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them
- The names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from the designated persons during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% the annual income of such designated persons but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

7.5 Any person may be brought “inside” if in the opinion of the Managing Director/ Chairman of the Board/ such other designated person as may be authorized by the Board/ Managing Director is so required on such sensitive inside information in his/their best judgment.

Such person shall be governed by this internal code of conduct of the Company governing dealing in securities.

The person so brought 'inside' shall be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI and the liabilities attached to misuse or unwarranted use of such UPSI.
