f. Management's perception of risk factors : Increasing digitalization, paperless communication including initiatives like e-governance, paperless offices may further impact paper consumption. Any slowdown in the economy on account of economic or general health reasons especially post the Covid-19 pandemic could have an adverse impact on the Company's operations. Post this pandemic shutdown of schools, colleges and majority of offices has adversely impacted the demand of writing & printing (W&P) paper, although there is gradual opening of schools since last 6 months. Free Trade Agreements and rising competition from imports could pose a threat. Compliance of Environment and other statutory norms/compliance continuous to be challenge. Availability of wood fiber has always been a challenge in India because of industrial plantation not permitted in India. Volatility in global commodity prices including International Pulp Prices, energy costs, higher logistic costs and handling wastage continue to be a matter of concern. The industry faces shortage of talented and experienced manpower due to lack of good institutes offering technical courses for the pulp and paper industry.

g. Details of default, including the amount involved, duration of default and present status, in repayment of –
i) Statutory dues - None, the Company is generally regular in depositing statutory dues with the appropriate authorities, other than those which are sub-judice.
